Commissioner for Patents
of Washington, D.C. 20231

REMARKS

In response to the Final Office Action mailed November 26, 2002, no claims are amended, canceled, or added; as a result, claims 1-42 and 65 remain pending in this application.

All arguments from the prior response are hereby incorporated by reference to preserve all issues for appeal.

§103 Rejection of the Claims

Claims 1-12 and 65 were rejected under 35 USC § 103(a) as being unpatentable over Tan et al. (U.S. Patent No. 6,372,622) in view of Bernier et al. ("Laser Processing of Palladium..."). Applicant traverses.

Applicant does not admit that the Tan patent is prior art to the present invention and reserves the right to swear behind this patent at a later date. Nevertheless, Applicant also submits that the present invention is distinguishable over the Tan patent in view of Bernier.

The Examiner has the burden under 35 U.S.C. § 103 to establish a prima facie case of obviousness. In re Fine, 837 F.2d 1071, 1074, 5 U.S.P.Q.2d (BNA) 1596, 1598 (Fed. Cir. 1988). In combining prior art references to construct a prima facie case, the Examiner must show some objective teaching in the prior art or some knowledge generally available to one of ordinary skill in the art that would lead an individual to combine the relevant teaching of the references. Id. The M.P.E.P. contains explicit direction to the Examiner that agrees with the In re Fine court:

To establish a prima facie case of obviousness, three base criteria must be met. First, there must be some suggestion or motivation, either in the references themselves or in the knowledge generally available to one of ordinary skill in the
